MI Magazine is published quarterly by the United States Army Intelligence Center and School as a professional development resource for military intelligence personnel worldwide; and as a means of establishing informal but highly productive contact with active Army, reserve, and civilian intelligence personnel through the Army and world.

MI Magazine is an authorized unofficial publication. Unless otherwise stated, the ideas and articles presented are the author's and do not represent official policy or endorsement by any Department of the Army or Department of Defense agency. Use of funds for printing MI Magazine was approved by the Department of the Army in April 1974, in accordance with AR 310-1. Controlled Circulation postage paid at Sierra Vista, Arizona.

Manuscripts should be submitted to: Commander, United States Army Intelligence Center and School, ATTN: ATSI-CTD-MG, Fort Huachuca, Arizona 85613. Material must be submitted at least two months prior to date of publication for the issue in which the article would appear. Permission is granted to reprint articles or extracts provided the author and MI Magazine are credited.
